High Street heroes in ... Petworth

There is no better time to visit this perfectly preserved market town in the heart of the South Downs National Park than when it hosts its Christmas Fair on Saturday, 4th December. Here we meet some of the retailers you would see

Petworth is a special place at any time of the year.

The town has one foot in the past and one in the present to say nothing of the future.

Steeped in history, Petworth was voted Best Antiques Town 2004 and has links to the famous artist JW Turner, a frequent visitor to Petworth House.

The town still celebrates its cultural past with an annual Fete in the Park and the nationally renowned Petworth Festival, a music and arts extravaganza that attracts thousands of visitors every summer from around the world.

A quintessentially English market town

Petworth is a treasure trove of independent retailers, cafes, restaurants and accommodation. It offers the best flowers, delicatessen, wines/spirits, ladies and gents clothing, gift shops, hairdressers, travel agents, estate agents, lingerie, haberdashery, fresh fruit and vegetables, a superb butchers and bookshop.

Petworth's flourishing and vibrant business community comes together as the Petworth Business association (PBA). Recently merged with Petworth Antiques and Decorative Arts Association (PAADA), the PBA has nearly 90 members and aims to promote commerce in and around Petworth.

Petworth has hidden treasures to discover, making it a day out to remember.

Amongst these high street heroes is George Perez – Martin of Brownrigg @ Home
