THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

A visit to Brownrigg showroom in Petworth, West Sussex proves that London is not the be-all and end-all when it comes to sourcing quality antiques of all types. One of the best dealers outside the capital, it is a constantly evolving, one stop shop for furniture, rare objets d'art and paintings collected from all corners of the world, making it a favourite among top international decorators and designers. Brownrigg has something else to celebrate: the recent opening of its second expertly curate showroom, found right next to the original. It will also be exhibiting at the next Decorative Antiques and Textiles Fair in January 2007
